

Our Superb Saltdean Townswomen's Guild

A is for Audrey Pickles, our Chairman and Inspiration, A smile from Sheila Bolton leaves a feeling of elation.
Cheery Margaret Curtis likes to bowl and travelling to the sun
Treasurer Diane Holliday edits the newsletter just for fun.
Everyone who participates takes turns to organise our Luncheon Club.
Margaret Fears' wonderous wayside walks end with dinner in the pub.
Games are held at genial Pauline Ricketts' house, to prevent our brains stagnating, or at Hostess with the mostest Pam Reynolds' home – let's hope she's done some baking.
Irish colleen Cathy Saunders likes to cater for a banquet or two Gentle
Janice Mahoney walks her dog and admires the ocean view. Kind Jean Brooks always looks so smart, from January to December, Pantomime performer Jean Griffiths is our Longest-serving member. Mary Foulkes ran the raffle for years & kept our winning hopes alive.
Nursery Teacher Megan Fairweather retired at eighty-five.
Dramatic Anita Gilson is Our very Own Judy Dench.
Parlez-vous français? Hugette Vincent tries to teach us French.
Queen of the teapot Brenda Warwick hydrates us at every meeting.
Registrar Pat Tripp collects our money with a pleasant greeting.
Sonia Copland hopes Book Club sates our literary aspiration.
Mary Trimbey fills us all with love and admiration.
Unique Maggie Beech is so knowledgeable and droll. V is for Vice Chairman, Elaine Self fulfils that role
New commers Cecily, Christina, and Sandy we wait to Warmly Welcome thee.
Exuberant Susan Marlowe is our jolly Secretary.
You all form the framework of our fabulous T.G.
The Zenith of learning, friendship, and improved community.

Elaine Self November 2020