

*Writing
Women
Into History*

A new timeline of Women's History

UNITING
WOMEN
SINCE 1929

- |   |  |   |
|---|--|---|
|  Aeronautics             |  Mathematics            |  Science         |
|  Acting                  |  Medicine               |  Space           |
|  Architecture            |  Missionary             |  Sport           |
|  Army                    |  Motor sport            |  Suffragist      |
|  Artist                  |  Mountaineer            |  Teacher         |
|  Astronaut               |  Music                  |  Television      |
|  Business                |  MP                     |  TG member       |
|  Civil Rights            |  Nobel Prize            |  TUC Trade union |
|  Commonwealth of Nations |  Noblewoman             |  War work        |
|  Cook                    |  Olympian               |  Writer          |
|  Dentistry               |  Palaeontology          |  Warrior         |
|  Electrical engineer    |  Piracy                 |   |
|  Explorer              |  Philanthropist       |   |
|  Fashion               |  Poet                 |   |
|  Film                  |  Police               |   |
|  Football              |  Politician           |   |
|  House of Lords        |  Polymath             |   |
|  Journalism            |  Monarch              |   |
|  Law                   |  Radio                |   |
|  LGBTQIA               |  Railways             |   |
|  Lighthouse keeper     |  Regent               |   |
|  Local government      |  Religion (Christian) |   |
|   |  Royal Navy           |   |
|   |  Selflessness         |   |

There are some women, such as Mary Seacole, Edith Cavell, Mother Teresa and Baroness Thatcher, whose part in history is well documented, so you will not find them here. We are including those on our timeline whose achievements may be less well remembered.